

Revision Websites

Making your own revision notes from your classwork and homework and are the most effective forms of revision notes. However, if you feel it would help you to spend part of your revision time using the internet here are some suggestions for you: (Revision websites will cover every syllabus so make sure you know which parts are relevant for your syllabus).

www.s-cool.co.uk

www.bbc.co.uk/schools/gcsebitesize/

<http://www.revision-notes.co.uk/GCSE/>

<http://www.projectgcse.co.uk/>

<https://getrevising.co.uk/resources/level/gcse>

www.samlearning.com

School ID is GU2GC and your password and user name are both your date of birth (6 figures e.g. 100691) plus your initials. (e.g. 100691HN)

www.topmarks.co.uk has links to other revision websites

<http://lgfl.skool.co.uk/examcentre.aspx?id=128>

For Maths and Science – revision notes and exam help.

www.gcse.com/

Award winning site offering useful advice to students in the form of tutorials, exam techniques and handy tips.

www.gcseguide.co.uk

Straightforward site with clear diagrams and sample exam questions which are great for revision.

